Tampa Bay Transportation Management Area (TMA) Leadership Group Executive Summary

Representing the MPOs in Pasco, Pinellas, & Hillsborough Counties

Summary for 9.6.19 meeting

Based on the importance and reach of the conversations that happen at the TMA Leadership Group, we are looking to keep our stakeholders aware of the outcomes of these meetings. The following is a summary of the most recent meeting highlights; you can find the full agenda online. Videos of the TMA meetings can be viewed on YouTube.

Group members discussed needs and priorities for the upcoming legislative session

- State Senator Darryl Rouson was in attendance, as well as an aide to State Representative Jackie Toledo
  - Rouson thanked the group for its commitment to finding transportation solutions, although he noted that it may not be happening at the pace the public has appetite for
  - He expressed that he wanted to see novel ideas for improving Tampa Bay’s congestion
  - Rouson also stated that while he supported the TMA Leadership Group model over a merged MPO model, he felt the state legislature and public as a whole wanted to see real action and solutions as a result

- Many group members expressed the need for flexibility in state funding of transportation beyond widening roads
  - Specifically, members voiced frustration with the restrictions on Strategic Intermodal System funds, which cannot currently fund non-fixed guideway transit, parallel facilities, or most state-owned arterial roadways
  - Pasco County Commissioner Kathryn Starkey also spoke about the need to have flexibility in what types of modes (such as golf carts or scooters) can use multi-use trails along state roads, prompted by building a trail underneath U.S. 19

- Hillsborough County Commissioner Pat Kemp voiced a series of concerns
  - These included the resiliency of current plans for the new span of the Howard Frankland Bridge to possible sea level rise, plans for expanding I-275 through downtown Tampa, and the MCORES task forces set to explore three toll roads through largely rural and undeveloped Florida land
  - Kemp and Pasco County Commissioner Jack Mariano stated they hoped looking into purchasing the CSX line from Wesley Chapel through downtown Tampa would be on the legislature’s radar
Pinellas County Commissioner Janet Long expressed hope that the Florida Senate would not sign on to the House’s amicus brief against Hillsborough’s All for Transportation tax, although the Senate has since done so.

Group members praised the value of having Sen. Rouson present and said they felt it would be helpful to invite legislative delegation members to every TMA meeting going forward.

MPO staff outlined options for clarifying roles and responsibilities of the MPO Chairs Coordinating Committee and TBARTA in regional transportation planning

- The West Central Florida MPO CCC has existed since 1993 as a forum for regional decisionmaking and has three guiding documents:
  - Interlocal agreement between MPO members (Sarasota/Manatee, Polk, Forward Pinellas, Hillsborough, Pasco, and Hernando/Citrus)
  - Operating procedures outlining specific responsibilities
  - Staff services agreement with TBARTA, created initially in 2012

- With the effort to formalize the TMA Leadership Group as a subcommittee of the CCC, as well as TBARTA’s 2017 change to a transit-focused mission, the MPO staff directors began to look at a more active CCC role.
  - The proposal would shift MPO responsibilities back under the CCC framework, with staff directors resuming administration and management activities that TBARTA currently does.
    - Staff directors would present meeting agendas and proposed direction to the TBARTA board prior to CCC meetings
    - Doing so would clarify TBARTA as the forum for regional transit discussions and the CCC as the forum for regional multimodal transportation discussions

- In TBARTA’s governing statute, there is language stating that TBARTA provides administrative support to the CCC.
  - The statute remains silent on what those services are, so the goal of the proposal is to meet the legislative intent with TBARTA housing agendas and meeting notices on its website and also providing meeting space
  - The proposal will be reviewed by legal counsel, and TBARTA will also provide feedback

- The proposed transition would fully occur in 2020, but with the staff services agreement with TBARTA ending this September, it is important to clarify roles now.
  - The TMA would shift to quarterly meetings, with the CCC meeting on the same day as the TMA in the summer and fall
    - Leadership responsibility would rotate quarterly between MPOs
    - This schedule would allow better coordination between all of the CCC MPOs, not just those within the TMA Leadership Group tri-county areas
  - A decision would need to be made by this November on moving to the proposed schedule

MPO staff provided updates on regionally significant projects and development of the regional component of the 2045 Long Range Transportation Plan
Based on the 2018 It’s TIME Tampa Bay regional survey, all three MPOs created a tri-county vision map with envisioned investment corridors for roads, rail and bus

Hillsborough County has several options it is exploring for reducing congestion and delay:
  ○ New managed toll lanes on the interstates and Selmon Expressway
  ○ Elevated express lanes on major roads
  ○ Exploring CSX corridors, water transit routes, and a transit route in a dedicated right-of-way between downtown Tampa and Westshore/the airport

Pinellas County is exploring several projects that move traffic without significantly widening roads:
  ○ On I-275, express lanes are under construction from Roosevelt Boulevard to the Howard Frankland Bridge, and additional express lanes are in the design phase further south to downtown St. Petersburg
  ○ On U.S. 19, the interchange at Curlew Road is funded for construction in 2023, while interchanges at Tampa and Nebraska are not yet funded for construction
  ○ In the Gandy Boulevard corridor, a PD&E is underway for overpasses continuing past the Derby Lane dog track and out to the bridge, which includes replacing the bridge and connections to the Selmon extension
  ○ The Gateway Master Plan project is wrapping up, which is coordinated with FDOT identifying an intermodal center location in the area

Pasco County is examining options for improving mobility and accommodating its growth:
  ○ Exploring options for an east-west network with improvements to Ridge Road, possibly eventually going to I-75, as well as expansion on SR52
  ○ Additionally, a PD&E is underway for the US41-SR54 interchange
  ○ The county is also exploring options for transit and transit-oriented development

The group discussed the possibility of connecting Kinnan Street and Mansfield Boulevard between Hillsborough and Pasco counties
  ● Currently, only 30 feet of unpaved space separates the two roads
    ○ Residents of Mansfield Boulevard in Pasco County had opposed connecting the road because of concerns about high speed and nearby schools as well as increasing congestion
    ○ Residents of New Tampa in Hillsborough County have supported the connector for accessibility and emergency vehicle access
  ● Pasco County has recently agreed to connect the roads for emergency vehicles and bicyclists/pedestrians, with options for further traffic connection to be discussed in the future
  ● There may be funding set aside in Hillsborough County to build the connection, which the Hillsborough County Commission will look into

TBARTA staff provided an update on planning activities
  ● The Tampa Bay Transit Development Plan is due to FDOT in September 2020
  ● TBARTA is currently conducting the Regional Rapid Transit PD&E for the shoulder-running buses on I-275
Right now, the study is focused on station locations, reviewing the 21 identified locations with a working group and working with land use planners from each county on making the stations transit-oriented.

- The PD&E will be completed in the fall of 2021.

The group’s next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 8 at PSTA Headquarters.
